The only cure.

The Southdown sheep wash is the only effectual cure for the scab in sheep, the Estancieros in the Banda Oriental, and in this province have universally tried it when the wool began to fall off and now they reap the benifit; every sheep in their flocks gives an entire fleece; the value of the wool saved by the timely application of this remedy would more than pay for all the sheep wash which the farmer might require for the next twelve years.

So many remedies have been advertized and failed that the agents feels he has to contend with a direct prejudice, but as some of the principal sheep Estancieros have used the wast and proved its utility he can confidently refer to these parties if necessary

It is certainly infra dig. to have our Consul-general scribbling for a tachero print; and lamentable as it may be to throw pearls to swine, in giving European travels to readers who know not their value, we regret still more the ridicule which must attach to our Parisian diplomatist in his efforts to explain to us in Buenos Aires the state of our local politics, the character of our journals, and, in fine, the current of our public opinion.

Our absent friend renders no possible service to Buenos Aires, or Paris, while reflecting little credit on his own character, by the lucubrations which arrive here every fortnight. Dumas truly observed to him.—"Pity it is that human folly has no limits, while human wisdom is very restricted."

MONTEVIDIAN PROSPECTS.

We have received per French mail, a circular from the Uruguay legation at London; which is highly interesting, as it shews the conquest already made by Montevideo in the industrial tournament of the World's Fair, and gives a true picture of the flattering prospects of that side of the River Plate. This document is in English, Spanish and French, yet none of our B. A. colleagues have as yet reviewed it.

The preserved beef called especial attention from Jury of scientific men, who declared that Europe had made no improvement in this article since 1851, while the moist beef of M. Video was pronounced superior to anything of the kind, at one-half the price of salted beef and tongues from Canada or Australia.

"Five medals and six honorable mentions" have been awarded to the Wool, Wheat, Cotton, Wood and Leather exhibited; and Mr. Neill has so much at heart the interests of the republic he represents, that he circulates this intelligence, in divers tongues, on each side of the Atlantic. He also advises Pres. Berro to assist emigrants, by paying a portion of their passage-money, for, every sensible man admits the axiom of Mr. Wheelright—land is valueless without inhabitants.

The concluding remarks about the River Plate Bank and other schemes of public utility, some already carried out, others in embryo, prove how favorably both these republics are regarded in England, the only co-operation requisite on our part being a passive disposition to let capitalists develope the magnificent resources which have hitherto lain unprofitable and neglected.

EDITOR's TABLE.

What about the artillery man? is the question: has he been punished, and has the minister of War taken any, and what, steps that these soldiers be kept occupied at something, and not lounging about the streets and lanes in idleness &c? The minister of War, we believe, does not understand English. What a pity! We hope some friend of law and order will take him a copy of Wednesday's Standard, so that he may know something about the conduct of his soldiers in this city.

The Spanish Opera "La Indigena" comes off to-night at the Victoria. Miss Altieri will appear as Atala? We have no doubt that she will draw a crowded house in this opera, but regret that the Victoria Theatre has been engaged in preference to the Colon.

The Railroad to Belgrano will at last be opened to the public. In another column will be seen the time-table. The fares appear to us high, and trains on week days too numerous. We hope to see the fare to Belgrano put at $3; the distance is so short, and the inconvenience, of having to walk away off to the Gas house to find the train, is so great, that at least the fares ought to be moderate.

There seems to exist in this city a post of honor which all men eschew. Elections after elections, nominations after nominations, take place, but they are uniformly followed by peremptory resignations which admit of no escape.

The Tribunal of Commerce in this city seems to be abhorred and detested by all the principal merchants in town, and we certainly consider that it might be as well shut up altogether, if not at once remodelled and reformed. Nothing is more wanted in this city than a good Commercial Tribunal, but it is absurd to suppose that we can have judges without a reform. The Court properly speaking, should only have one judge, and all suits in it be tried either before a jury or a Referee.

The municipal elections have been approved of by Government. We are sorry to remark that many good candidates have been defeated.

Palermo House would now be a first rate position for a good restaurant. We hope that it will be turned to some use, and not permitted to fall into decay. If the city Municipality would only expend the improper gains which they realize each month out of the lottery business, in constructing a public park in the public grounds of Palermo, it would adorn the city and be a pleasant place for recreation.

It may be interesting to some of our readers to know that the sooner they despatch their goods from the Custom house, the better, as we have good reason to believe that, on the 1st of next month, if not sooner, the valuation on Cotton goods will be raised at least 50 per cent.

European News

IRELAND.

"The search for Hayes" has been for weeks a standing heading in the Southern papers. The police are, from time to time, put on a false scent. They set out on the chase full of hope, and after a close search of some hours during the night they return to their barracks wearied, with their fruitless labour. One of the most extraordinary of those excursions has just occurred on the premises of one of the most respected magistrates in the County Tipperary, Mr. Samuel Ryall, of Annerville House. Information was conveyed to the constabulary authorities in Dublin that the fugitive was concealed in Mr. Ryall's house. Mr. Goold, R. M., directed that a search should be made. About 1 o'clock on Monday morning Mr. Kitson, sub inspector, with 40 of the constabulary, entered the house, which is about two miles from Clonmel, and searched every corner about the place. Having spent four hours on the ground without discovering any trace of the murderer, Mr. Ryall, who was with his family at Tramore, in the County Waterford, and returned on hearing of the affair, was of course surprised at this visitation, which, however, implied no reflection upon him.

Mr. William Dargan, who may be said to have created a new town at Bray, has added another attractive feature to that fashionable watering-place. He has set apart an extensive and valuable piece of ground in front of the new International Hotel, the finest building of the kind in Ireland, which is to devoted to athletic sports for the benefit of the inhabitants. It will also be used for flower shows and bazaars. The ground was formally opened yesterday, when the Lord-Lieutenant was present. A numerous party assembled to witness the inauguration and the foot races and other sports which followed.

Two youths, named Carthy and Gleeson, aged 16 and 19, were charged yesterday at the Capel-street police-office with having set fire to a haystack at Stoneybatter, in this city, thus destroying 100 tons of hay, valued at 160l. The prisoners admitted that they had set fire to the hay, and stated that their object was to get themselves transported. They were remanded for further examination.

The commissioners appointed to examine the working of the Royal Dublin-Society are pursuing their inquiries privately in the Board-room at Leinster-house.

The Attorney-General of Ireland.—Dangerous Accident.—Letters have been received in town from the Right Hon. Thomas O'Hagan, Attorney-General for Ireland, who is at present travelling in Italy, stating that a serious accident occurred to a diligence, in which, we rejoice to say, he fortunately escaped uninjured. The right hon. Gentleman and three of his daughters, accompanied by their governess, were in the vehicle, when it was capsized in the neighbourhood of Florence, the driver killed, and several persons severely injured; but, excepting the great shock which he and his children sustained, they suffered no further injury. The governess received a wound on the head, but she is going on well and may be pronounced free from all danger arising from the accident. We are happy in stating that Mr. O'Hagan is deriving great benefit from his tour, and his general health is evidently improved, —Morning News.

BRIGANDAGE IN ITALY.

A Turin letter of the 13th says:—

The trial of the poignarders is going on with great activity at Palermo. The examination has revealed facts which have caused very painful surprise. It appears certain that those wretches were in relation with persons in a high position. It is the same in this respect as with the brigandage on the mainland. The bandits could not subsist for a fortnight in their mountains without connivance with certain persons in the plain who have the reputation of being Liberals, and even hold rank in the national guard or places in the municipalities. The misadventure of young Faldella has clearly proved this. Having been carried off by brigands, he was subjected to what is called the "riscatto". His ransom was fixed at 11,000 ducats [about 36 000f.]; others say at 9,000 ducats. Delay was given to the father for the payment, after which time he was told one of his son's arms would be sent to him. The father collected 8,000 ducats, carried them to the place fixed on, and spoke so impressively that his son was restored to him. Young Faldella during his captivity had seen the brigands in relation with persons who were not at all armed, and who after long conferences returned to their homes. He was able to point out a Syndic, a Captain and Lieutenant of the National Guard, and different private individuals all of whom were arrested and lodged in the prison at Potenza. The Sub-Prefect was so indiscreet as to release the Syndic on bail. General Avenati, in virtue of the powers he derives from the state of siege, dismissed the Prefect; but the Syndic, who had already reached the haunts of the brigands, has not been taken.

REFORM IN BADEN.

A letter from Baden says:—

A rumour which was published of the departure of the Grand Duke for England is without foundation. The official journal of Carlsruhe has just published several decrees which mark an important progress in a liberal path. They authorise an industrial liberty greater than in any other German country, facilitate marriages, proclaim the equality to Jews before the law, and abolish the last remnants of feudal institutions. The law upon the freedom of trades is now in operation.

TURKEY.

Constantinople journals and letters to the 5th have reached us. The Sultan had returned from his trip to Ismidt and Gallipoli, escorted as before by several corvettes. His Majesty was in good health and much pleased with his excursion. The "Levant Herald" has the following paragraph:—

We are assured by an informant who... likely to be in error that the chief object of the recent visit of the Viceroy of Egypt to Constantinople was to obtain the consent of the Porte to the negotiation of another Egyptian loan. The Government, however, categorically refused its sanction, properly recognising the impolicy of further discounting the future of the province for the personal convenience of its present ruler. The amount purposed to be raised by this defeated second "little transaction" is said to have been 2,000,000l., the greater part of which was to have passed to M. de Lesseps in payment of the arrears due on the Pasha's shares in that gentleman's scheme—the quota contributed to that object from the last loan being it appears, much less than the expert financial engineer had bargained for when the operation was first devised. Be this as it may, the present fancy price of Egyptian Bonds in the London market is not for the present to be disturbed by the issue of any new obligations from the same quarter.

Letters from Constantinople of the 8th state that the French Government has sent instructions to give support to the remonstrances of Russia relative to the military road which the Turks want to open across Montenegro. M. de Moustier, it is said, reminded the Porte that it had proposed to maintain the territorial "status quo," and that, if it refused, France would pass from counsels to a direct opposition. The Ottoman fleet was on the eve of leaving, for the purpose of bringing back a corps of 20,000 men, forming part of the army of Montenegro. The Sultan has ordered a triumphal reception to be given them at Constantinople.

SERVIA AND TURKEY

The following is an analysis of the reply of the Prince of Servia to the letter which accompanied the text of the protocol signed by the members of the conference at Constantinople:

The greater the confidence felt by the Prince in the kindness of the Porte and of the Powers, the more he regrets that the arrangements come to should in certain respects be at variance with the conditions which he thought he had a right to expect. Not a word of blame has been said either directly or indirectly against the unprovoked measure of the bombardment, and whilst indemnities have been stipulated in favour of Mussulmans for losses experienced by them none is awarded to any of the inhabitants of Belgrade who suffered from the fire of the citadel. In next examining the question of the ground to be left unoccupied round the citadel, the Prince also regrets that such care should have been taken to increase the system of defence of that building, and to render still more formidable a menace which has already been realized with impunity. As to the moral guarantees offered by the Porte, he should accept them with more confidence, if recent experience had not so unfortunately shown how readily the excellent intentions of the Imperial Government may be eluded. The Prince, in conclusion, adds that he should have experienced a feeling of the most lively satisfaction if he had been able to date from the arrangements concerted at Constantinople a new era of peace and of cordial relations. He ventures to rely on the equitable sentiments of the Suzerain Court that the frankness of his language will be kindly received.

IMPORTANT FROM LONDON.

Respecting the River Plate.

Mr. E. B. Webb, C. E., of Great George Street, London, so well known for his great experience in South American railways, and an accredited authority upon docks, breakwaters, and marine engineering, has just returned from the River Plate. On behalf of himself and Sir Charles Bright, he has submitted to the Government of Monte Video his great scheme of telegraphic communication from the Atlantic seaboard of Brazil to the Chilian and Peruvian shores of the Pacific, ultimately connecting direct with Europe, viâ the Azores, Canaries, and so to Lisbon. He speaks in the highest terms of the condition, progress, and probable future of Uruguay, its fertility of soil, beauty of climate, and geological and geographical advantages, including its excellent harbour, which, however, may be much improved by small expenditure.

Such is the credit attached to Mr Webb's representations as to the field Uruguay presents for an economically conducted railway system, which no person is more competent to introduce, and direct than himself, that English contractors, of large means and prominent status, have authorised the employment of whatever capital may be requisite to give initial effect to his recommendations. There is no doubt, now the long pending differences in regard to the British and French claims are in course of amicable liquidation that, with its rapidly increasing revenues, the credit of the Monte Videan Government will speedily stand much higher, and with more reason, in the English money market, than several other South American states, for whose use millions sterling have recently been advanced, and the stocks quoted at considerable premiums.

LOCAL EVENTS.

The Governor of the province D. Mariano Saavedra is almost recovered from his late severe illness, and although he has not yet left his house, by order of his physician, he has been despatching public business.

Deficit. The Province of San Luis has presented its budget for the forthcoming year, with a deficit of $ 4000 silver.

If they keep quiet, this is cheap. Buenos Ayres can afford to pay them twice as much for the sake of peace.

The Judges lately appointed to the Tribunal of Commerce as well as two or three more have presented their resignation as we had foreseen already.

It is useless to expect a lawyer of some credit and position to give up his profession and independence for the relatively insignificant sum of five thousand dollars currency per month.

La Indigena is to come off to-night in Victoria Theatre. Madame Altieri we hear has studied carefully the piece, and therefore here is every probability that the performance will please the audience.

Dn. José Iraola, a very respectable native gentleman and one of our principal estancieros, has just died at his estancia.

Deceased has been for several years a deputy in our local legislature, a volunteer soldier several times in his life time, and one of the few connoisseurs in paintings which our city could boast.

Elections will take place on Sunday the 7th instant in the Tribunal of Commerce for a merchant to sit in the Board of Public Credit.

The University — Presents a very animated appearance on account of the annual examinations.

We hear the result is hitherto very satisfactory and that the students have in general shown a good year's work.

Monte Video — Political matters continue in the same state, although the rigour to several prisoners has been mitigated, and their families have been allowed to see them.

A committee had been appointed to report on the proposed establishment of a penitentiary.

In the North plaza the amount o wool on sale is enormous, and in th South plaza the wool is coming in pretty fast; buyers say that South wool n intrinsic lly better than that of the last ; we learn that in the Galpones, shearers are getting 50 per hundred and people we hear are paying $6 per aroba freight from the villa Luxan. This we regard as almost impossible although it is a notorious f ct that fewas the carts are, the bullocks are fewer.

Store open until 10 at night Country stores supplied at wholesale: to such we sell, lienzos, warranted cotton handkerchiefs and other articles, at even a discount on our own retail prices: and to give an adequate idea of our prices, it is only necessary to say that, even in the present state of the market, we sell good strong lienzo at 3 dollars the yard, and good Bramante —viz, Barbour Barclay's—No. 60 dollars the piece of 20 English yards. Always on hand, Gifford's No 1 calico and others of first class, straw hats, with broad brims, and silk lined, 18 dollars, and new goods of all sorts coming in so constantly as to render it impossible to advertise them in detail.
